

It's time to march.

Save the date:
January 19, 2019

On January 19, 2019, we're going to remind Premier Ford that women are not going back. We are organized. We are mobilizing.

Marches are being organized around the province. Join Women's March in your community: www.ofl.ca/womens-march-events-across-ontario. For information, please contact Carrol Anne Sceviour at csceviour@ofl.ca.
